

Can I?

I can change the world
By not thinking of others
Continually being uncaring,
Watching people get treated wrong,
When I know I can just say, leave him alone.

I can better the world
By not believing things are good,
Believing brothas from the hood
Are just misunderstood.

I can make everyone happy
By never believing in the American Dream
Therefore lowering everyone's self-esteem,
Or Can I?
